

Up to the September following a child's 5th Birthday, Childminders are legally obligated to make assessments on the child's development. This is the criteria we follow. If you have any questions please ask us anytime. Everyone at The Den understands why we have to do this work and we love sharing our collected evidence and observations with you.

Early years foundation stage: progression & monitoring